

INSTITUTE FOR PUBLIC AFFAIRS

WASHINGTON INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Congress Capitol Hill

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Come experience all that Washington has to offer through the Orthodox Union's IPA Washington Internship Program.

Students serve in Congressional offices and in Jewish public advocacy organizations. The program strives to serve as an opportunity for leadership development and advocacy training. This is an outstanding opportunity for young adults to serve on Capitol Hill and to develop skills that will help them serve America, Israel and Klal

Yisrael their entire lives, while living in a Torah-observant environment. Applications for the summer of 2007 are now available on-line at www.ou.org/public_affairs/article/interns. Applicants should be entering their junior or senior year of college in fall 2007 and should outline work done for Israel and/or the Jewish Community in their applications.

For further information and to apply, please visit us online at www.ou.org/public_affairs/article/interns. Please contact the IPA Washington office at ipadc@ou.org or call 202.513.6484 with any questions.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS IS FEBRUARY 28, 2007.
