

A PRESENTATION OF THE OU JOB BOARD:

Mortgage Crisis & Credit Crunch

A Halachic Perspective

Live Video &
Tele-Conference
Broadcast

September 24, 1:00-2:30 pm (EDT).

Many halachic issues arise in the business world, such as charging interest, bankruptcy and so on. Today's challenge is how to respond to the credit crunch faced by many people. Rabbi Hershel Schachter and Rabbi Yisroel Belsky, two of the most prominent rabbinical authorities, will hold a live webcast Q & A session on this topic that should be viewed by everyone affected by today's uncertain economic conditions.

To Register for this Webcast:

Sign up by visiting www.ou.org/jobs and look for the "The Mortgage Crisis and Credit Crunch – A Halachic Perspective" tab. You can also call 212.563.4000, ask for the Job Board and request to be registered.

A few audio-only teleconferencing slots will also be available. e-mail your request with your name and phone number so we can send you an access code.

There will also be a limited audience in attendance; e-mail jobs@ou.org or fax 212.613.0644 with your request to attend in person.

To Submit Your Questions:

e-mail jobs@ou.org or fax 212-613-0644. Deadline is Wednesday, September 17th. No questions will be accepted after this date or during the webcast. Your questions will be read by our moderator, Rav Dovid Grossman, and will be answered live by the Rabbanim.
